

With the support of the AAOHN Foundation scholarship, I was able to attend the AAOHN National Conference in New Orleans in April 2017. Here, I learned an incredible amount of knowledge and was able to network with many individuals. One piece of information I immediately put into action was updating our storage of immunizations for mass influenza clinics. I am very grateful to have been awarded the scholarship.

Megan LeClair-Netzel